Residential Infill Project Discussion

The committee reviewed the Residential Infill Project (RIP) Proposed Draft and discussed getting mixed messages regarding the exclusion of areas with concentrations of vulnerable populations until programs are available to mitigate displacement risk. After discussion the committee approved drafting a letter based on the committee's talking points and comments to be approved by NECN's board.

Motion/Second/Carried (MSC) Schweitzer/Kennedy.

Cassidy Bolger, Lloyd Community Association (LCA)

The committee welcomed Cassidy Bolger from Lloyd Community Association's Land Use and Transportation Committee. Cassidy discussed the association's involvement with Central City in Motion. LCA is excited to support the new Sullivan's Gulch bridge as part of the Lloyd to Woodlawn Greenway project. He explained that Go Lloyd is the district's transportation-focused organization. The committee also discussed the parking at Lloyd Center Mall, the association's good neighbor agreement with Right Too Dream Too and Lloyd's recognition as an Enhanced Service District.

Minutes

Sean Green moved to approve the March 28, 2018 minutes by acclamation. Approved.

Bureau of Planning and Sustainability (BPS) Updates

Nan presented updates from BPS, including the presentation of the Map Refinement and Code Reconciliation Projects to City Council as part of adoption of the Comprehensive Plan. Nan discussed the issue with development of the Alberta Abbey and its parking lot. City Council re-opened the deadline to submit testimony to accommodate Humboldt Neighborhood Association's input.
